

The Munay-Ki consists of 4 Foundation Rites and 5 Lineage Rites Schedule

Munay- ki means “The energy of love”

are energetic transmissions consisting of 9 rites brought by Alberto Villoldo from his work with the Peruvian High Shaman of the Andes and Amazon

The course runs over 4 days and we share 2 days on the Foundation Rites and 2 days on the Lineage Rites. Kindly find below the schedule:

Foundation Rites:

Day 1

Rite One: Healer's Rite

Connects you to a lineage of luminous beings from the past to awaken the healing power in your hands and assist you in your personal transformation.

Rite Two: Bands of Power

Five luminous belts are woven into the luminous energy field (LEF) for protection, acting as filter breaking down any negative energy and feeding your energetic field in a positive way instead of making you sick.

Day 2

Rite Three: Harmony Rite

Transmission of the 7 Archetypes into the Chakras which will help in getting rid of the psychic sludge that has built up in our chakra system.

Each archetype has a very unique characteristic and will help with:

Shedding our skin, connecting with the feminine and collective mother earth, teach us to live without fear, determination and to drink deeply from the nectar of life, to spread our wings by receiving the gift of clarity and vision, bring harmony and peace to our unconscious mind and order in to our life, to connect with who we becoming in our future so that we can take the best joyful path for the years to come.

Rite Four: Seer's Rite

Five pathways of light are woven from the third eye to the visual cortex in the back of the head and two pathways of light are woven from the heart Chakra to the visual cortex. This rite helps us to connect our third eye to our heart to manifest the new earth through our heart chakra's.

Lineage Rites:

Day 3

Rite Five: Daykeeper's Rite

You connect to a lineage of master healers from the past, deeply connected with Pachamama to bring balance into the world through our actions and presence, and bringing healing to our feminine side.

Day 4

Rite Eight: Starkeeper's Rite

This rite anchors us safely to the time after the great change, that was said to have occurred around 2012. It prepares our body and auric field to evolve in line with the energetic changes that are taking place.

TESTIMONIALS

The Munay Ki course run by Pippa and Virginie is life-enhancing and they are clearly passionate about sharing this healing knowledge. They create a very friendly, inclusive, loving and joyful environment and a truly immersive sacred learning space, going at a pace according to individual course member's needs, demonstrating, then allowing pupils to practice, always with humour.

I have attended numerous courses over the past 11 years and I can happily say this has been the most enjoyable, friendly, rewarding and transformational - highly recommended.

Much Munay 🙏❤️🙏

I feel blessed to have taken part in the Munay-ki rites beautifully crafted by Virginie and Pippa. It has made me realise that when I am mindful and emotionally balanced, observing from an eagle's eye view I am achieving moments of 5D. The rites have planted the seeds for this to grow, shedding my worldly self, clearing the path to my true nature. letting go of the habitual to allow for this manifestation.

The exquisite 4 manuals are a wonderful resource consolidating all the wisdom shared.

With gratitude for what is to come 🙏

I had four wonderful days doing the Munay-ki course with Virginie & Pippa and a wonderful group of people. We (re-)learnt the old knowledge that feels so true and much needed for the turbulent times we live in. Thank you Pippa & Virginie for your passion, determination and hard work spreading the Munay-ki!

Vivien

The Munay Ki Workshops with Virginie and Pippa, were amazing, their beautiful energy works in harmony together. The rites are explained, demonstrated, and given with love and gentle patience. Receiving the nine rites is not easy to explain. I imagine the process, connection and gradual transformation is equally special for all, giving each participant exactly what they need to progress on their path.

This whole very special experience was spiritually enhanced as Virginie spent time using her beautiful voice and sound healing gifts to balance our energy. This was a profound and unexpected addition to both workshops. I feel blessed healed and grateful in equal measure.

Big love 🤍 hugs and blessings,

Jeanne
